

From: Hawaii Science Teachers Association (HaSTA) HaSTA@wildapricot.org
Subject: Opportunity for Ship-to-Shore interaction with scientists working in Papahānaumokuākea aboard the Ocean Exploration Trust's E/V Nautilus
Date: September 9, 2018 at 11:03 AM
To: James L. Redmond jredmond@hawaii.edu

Dear James L. Redmond,
Aloha Teachers,

Here is a great opportunity for your students:

From September 13 - October 1, 2018, scientists will explore the deep seamounts and ridges of Papahānaumokuākea aboard the Ocean Exploration Trust's E/V Nautilus. The Nautilus is equipped for live, real-time video streaming, and members of the public are encouraged to tune in during the expedition to watch as discoveries unfold at <http://nautiluslive.org>.

If you are interested in hosting a live Ship-to-Shore interaction between scientists aboard the ship and your class(es), please see the attached flyer and fill out this Ship-to-Shore interaction request form.

All the best,

Marcie

Marcie Grabowski

Outreach Specialist

School of Ocean and Earth Science and Technology (SOEST)

University of Hawaii - Manoa

2525 Correa Road, HIG 135

Honolulu, HI 96822

808.956.3151

Live Interaction Overview.pdf

The contents of this message do not necessarily represent the opinions, views, policy or procedures of the Organization. This message is private and confidential. Please note that the Organization does not warrant that any attachments are free from viruses or other defects and accepts no liability for any losses resulting from infected email transmissions

Unsubscribe